CITY COUNCIL MEETING CANCELLED

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the regular scheduled Bridgman City Council meeting on Monday, April 6, 2020 at 6:30 p.m. EST, has been cancelled. In place of a regular meeting, the City Council and staff will be testing an online meeting program called Zoom to ensure that the Council can conduct business via videoconference. If successful, the City Council plans on holding its next regular scheduled meeting on Monday, April 20, 2020 at 6:30 p.m. through this online system.

Due to health concerns surrounding Coronavirus/COVID-19, Michigan's Governor Gretchen Whitmer signed Executive Orders 2020-15 and 2020-21, allowing local municipalities to conduct virtual meetings online. Just as regular meetings are conducted, the public will be provided with an opportunity to engage the City Council under the public comment section of the agenda. More information will follow and be posted on the City's website www.bridgman.org with detailed instructions on how to participate using the online system.

This notice is posted in compliance with Open Meeting Act, Public Act 267 of 1976, MCL 15.261, et seq., and the Americans with Disabilities Act.
